

Macmillans Staff Coffee Morning

On Friday 25th September the nursery staff held their annual Macmillan Coffee Morning. During the year Kathy and Mike provide drinks free of charge but on this day the ladies had to pay £1 for their drinks. Cakes were also on sale made by various members of staff plus some yummy cakes made by little caterpillar George H's Mummy - thank you! - All the proceeds went to the Macmillan Cancer Trust.

But that is not all! - Nicola who works in the baby room and is mum to Big Butterflies Eva and Scarlett decided to have her hair cut for charity.

Nicola's hair was nearly 1 metre long and has never been to the hairdressers, Nicola wanted her hair to go to the Little Princess Trust which is a charity for children who have had alopecia or chemotherapy.

The hair will hopefully be made into a wig. We contacted Rose a professional hairdresser to come in and cut Nicola's hair, Rose kindly donated her services for the whole morning. Rose cut off a ponytail from Nicola's hair which measured over 20" long and then re-styled it while the children eagerly watched. We put sponsor forms in both entrance halls for parents, a very BIG thank-you to all our parents and staff. In total we raised over £234 and money is still coming in.

Nicola would like to thank everyone who sponsored her and helped to raise so much money, she is so pleased with her 'new hair.'

After Rose had finished cutting Nicola's hair the children lined up to have their hair plaited, gelled or straightened (permission was sought first) if they wanted to.

Toby H wanted his styling like a rock star

Jake P thought his hair looked 'fabulous'

Lyra P sat so patiently and let Rose straighten her curly hair and what a transformation. Lyra's hair looked like it had grown 10cm, she was so thrilled and kept flicking it back all afternoon saying "I look just like my friend Emma B. now"!! Even Lyra's Daddy didn't recognise her.

Lewis M then asked to go next, I'd like mine just like Lyra's - bless!! Lewis has really lovely short hair so he had it gelled instead!

What a fantastic morning we all had!
